

Pastor Mark Howard

Pastor, Coldwater, MI

Although raised in a Christian home, Mark left the faith when he was 15 years old...

Although raised in a Christian home, Mark left the faith when he was 15 years old, and for nearly 13 years had little to do with church, religion, or spiritual things. In a time of need, Mark found in Jesus a Savior and Friend. He and his wife, Stephanie, were baptized together on April 2, 1994.

The Lord opened one door after another for them, and opportunities to serve Him abounded—first in small duties in their local church, then as part of a traveling youth ministry, and on to a full calling in the pastoral ministry.

Mark and Stephanie are currently living in Coldwater, Michigan, with their two beautiful children, Caleb, age 11, and Annie, who just turned 5. Mark serves as the pastor of the Coldwater Rayborn Memorial Church.